Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of February 18th. In it you discussed terms and conditions under which you will play with The Eagles. While $225.00 a month is a high salary for a first year man, I am willing to pay you that amount, and will also give you $20.00 a week while you are in camp, plus your room and board, if you will report when asked. The team also pays your expenses when you are on the road during the regular season.

We plan to go to camp April 8th, and will train in Richmond Va., and will stay at Virginia Union University. Our league season opens May 5th.

I am glad to know you want to bring your wife. You will be able to find a place for her I know.

Answer me right back, so I will know for sure I can depend on you.

Very Truly Yours
